Early spring

Campos de Celtas Albariño 2014

technical data:

type of wine	Dry white wine
vintage	2014 This year was much cooler than recent vintages, with an average temperature of around 2°C less than recent summers and a higher rainfall, leading to wines with a greater acidity. Rains during harvest made it a somewhat complicated year, requiring extra care and selection of grapes.
harvest	Late September.
wine-making	After pressing, the juice is left to decant then fermented in stainless steel tanks at 16°
ageing	No oak ageing
blend	100% Albariño
analysis	Alcohol: 12.5% Acidity: 5.7g/l Volatile acidity: 0.4g/l Residual sugars: 1.50g/l pH: 3.4
date of bottling	Throughout the year.
total production	30,000 bottles of 75 cl tasting note	A perfectly clear and clean wine, very light yellow in colour, with a touch of green and gold at the edges. The nose is of good intensity, with fruity varietal aromas of apricot, pear and apple with a scents reminiscent of bales of hay and fennel. The mouth is full and intense, with a good weight and balance.
