Campos de Sueños Verdejo 2015

technical data:

type of wine	Dry white wine
vintage	2015 In many ways a perfect year for growing grapes, with a cool, wet spring, followed by a warm, dry summer. A slightly quicker ripening than is usual lead to an earlier harvest.
harvest	First half of September.
wine-making	After pressing, the juice is left to decant then fermented in stainless steel tanks at 16°
ageing	No oak ageing
blend	100% Verdejo
analysis	Alcohol: 12.75% Acidity: 5.6g/l Volatile acidity: 0.29g/l Residual sugars: 2.50g/l pH: 3.35
date of bottling	Throughout the year.
total production	30,000 bottles of 75 cl
tasting note	Very pale yellow in colour, with a touch of green at the edges. The nose is a blend of slightly grassy and herbal aromas together with those reminiscent of exotic fruits, like passion fruit or pineapple, as well as hints of grapefruit and green apples. The palate is complex and very well-balanced, with a good weight, but nevertheless being very drinkable and approachable.
